

Family members :

- ☉ Sons of Mary Immaculate
- ☉ Ursulines of Jesus
- ☉ Members of lay groups known to one of the two congregations

The laity commit themselves to the Family, by adhering to a text of reference, a process of formation and by following the model of commitment planned by each country.

Friends of the Family of the Incarnation

We consider as friends all those who share our life and our mission:

- ☉ our closest collaborators, those who work with us.
- ☉ members of our families
- ☉ Sisters and brothers who have left our Congregations.
- ☉ Past pupils.
- ☉ Those who share prayer with us on a regular basis

Each one can find their place in the Family!

Family of the Incarnation

*A way of life according to the Gospel,
At the school of the Incarnation,
With Louis-Marie Baudouin
And his disciples.*

Family that is to say:

The same sap,
Common roots
Same family spirit

The Spirit of the Word Incarnate

The Objectives of this Family

- ☉ To bring together all those who wish to go to « the school of the Incarnation » according to their own way of life and the call received.
- ☉ We enrich and support each other mutually. Together we will be coresponsible for the life of the Family and the vitality of the Charism we welcome equally and respectfully those of different vocations, religious, laity and priests
- ☉ To express in today's language the common treasure which is the spirituality of the Incarnation, according to Louis-Marie Baudouin and his disciples.
- ☉ To pass on this gift received so that it will develop in different places and cultures.
- ☉ To live more deeply our vocation as men and women. and our Christian mission in the heart of the world.

A conviction...and a responsibility for all:

It is not only part of our structures, but also what is lived in the places where we are and with whom we share our mission that the Family of the Incarnation will continue to live on.

On the road within the Family of Incarnation: what we want to live

To journey together in the family of the Incarnation

To know the family of the Incarnation through inter-personal meetings, through our places of foundations

To recognize in oneself the call to live according to the spirit of the Incarnate Word

Long for the support of a group of sisters or brothers.

Combine attention to life and the word of God, for Mission.

Specific formation: "Family of the Incarnation"

Incarnational way in everyday life"

Give a rightful place to the dignity of the human person. See in each person the image of God.

To be attentive to the "seeds of the Word mysteriously hidden in every human experience"

To allow oneself to be drawn to this re-reading

Contemplate and adore the Word Incarnate, and by Him and with Him, turn to the Father in thanksgiving.

To welcome Mary, as mother and example of life, who leads us to Jesus and by Jesus to the Father.

Participate actively in the life of the Church.

Participate in the life of the family

by being a member of a group of the Family of the Incarnation

Sharing, between groups in the Family, our way of expressing the Charism, so that it can be better lived and shared with those around us.

Participate in the life of the family:

Feasts, various events (chapters, assemblies, occasional meetings between communities and persons...)

If possible, live a celebration of the 25 March in the communion with all the Family

Help each other possibly bring a concrete support in place of Mission or for an emergency answer.
